IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT PROCEDURES FOR OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT: To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTATION MAY BE REQUIRED. I herby authorize the person to whom this application is made, or any credit bureau or other investigative agency employed by such person, to investigate the references herein listed or statements or other data obtained from me or from any other person pertaining to my credit and financial responsibility and authorize such persons to release such information to the person to whom this application is made.

THE FEDERAL EQUAL CREDIT OPPORTUNITY): Act requires that all creditors, including banks, savings and loan associations, small loan companies, retail stores and others, make credit equally available to all credit-worthy customers without regard to sex or marital status, race, color, religion, national origin, age (provided applicant has the capacity to contract), receipt of income from a public assistance program and the good faith exercise of rights under the Consumer Credit Protection Act. The Federal Agency which administers compliance with this law concerning this bank is the FDIC Consumer Response Center, 1100 Walnut Street, Box #11, Kansas City, MO 64106.

You have the right to receive from us within 30 days specific written reasons for adverse action taken as a result of an application for credit if you request it within sixty (60) days of such action.
